

WHY: State Champion; Academic All-American; Professional Mountain Racer; United States Army Green Beret; Purple Heart; Friend. Those are just some of the ways Jeremy Wright's friends referred to him. An immensely talented runner with an appetite for knowledge, Jeremy gave up a career in medicine—and ultimately his life—to fight for freedom in Afghanistan. The Jeremy Wright Memorial 5K honors what he meant to his family and his racing competitors.

All Proceeds Will Benefit:
1. A $500 Scholarship for a Southwestern High School Senior
2. The Jeremy Wright Memorial Scholarship @ Wabash College.
3. Wabash College Cross Country Program

WHERE: Flat Rock Fire Station, approximately 7 miles east of I65 on SR 252.

WHEN: Registration and check in 6:30-7:30am with the run and walk starting promptly at 8:00am.

REGISTRATION: Pre-registration for both the run and the walk can be filled out below. Pre-registration will guarantee shorts. Entries must be postmarked by August 8, 2009.

COST: $20.00 run or walk, with t-shirt. (we can not guarantee shirts on day-of-race registrations) $10.00 run or walk, no shirt. $5.00 run or walk children 12 & under (no shorts).

AWARDS: Both the run and the walk will be competitive events. Feel free to compete against the clock and have fun. (Yes, I said fun). There will be awards to all age group winners in the run and the walk for both men and women.

SUPPORT: Escort and traffic control will be provided along the entire course. Water will be available during the run and at the finish line. Medical aid will be available during and after the run/walk.

COURSE: The course consists of country roads with some rolling hills. It is a fairly fast course.

DOOR PRIZES: Door prizes to be given away by drawing of race participants.

AGE DIVISIONS: (Men & Women): 14 & under; 15-19; 20-29; 30-39; 40-49; 50-59; 60-70; 70 & over
