Why: State Champion; Academic All-American; Professional Mountain Racer; United States Army Green Beret: Purple Heart; Friend. Those are just some of the ways Jeremy Wright's friends referred to him. An immensely talented runner with an appetite for knowledge, Jeremy gave up a career in medicine—and ultimately his life—to fight for freedom in Afghanistan. The Jeremy Wright Memorial 5K honors what he meant to his family and his racing competitors.

All Proceeds Will Benefit:
1. A $500 Scholarship for a Southwestern High School Senior
2. The Jeremy Wright Memorial Scholarship @ Wabash College.
3. Wabash College Cross Country Program

Where: Flat Rock Fire Station, Approximately 7 miles east of I65 on SR 252.

When: August 13th, 2011 at 8:00 am. Race-day registration will be from 6:30-7:30am.

Cost: $20.00 run/walk with t-shirt. (We cannot guarantee shirts on day-of-race registrations) $15.00 run/walk no t-shirt.

Awards: The 5k run is a competitive event, but feel free to just compete against the clock and have fun. (Yes, I said fun). TOP 3 OVERALL MALE AND FEMALE WILL RECEIVE A CASH PRIZE. Age group winners win awards.

Support: Escort and traffic control will be provided along the entire course. Water will be available during the run and at the finish line. Medical aid will be available during and after the run/walk.

Course: The course consists of country roads with some rolling hills. It is a fairly fast course. All miles will be marked.

Door Prizes: Door prizes will be given away by drawing of race participants.
